2. Criteria and Process for Nomination director

The Board of Directors nominated 3 directors to serve on the Nomination and Remuneration Committee for the nomination of Company directors. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee are responsible for determining the nomination of candidates to be directors by identifying candidates based on their qualifications, experiences, expertise in various kinds of profession, and their performance in serving as company's directors in the past; as well as, identifying candidates who have qualifications that are useful to the Company in a principled and transparent fashion listed below.

- Allow the minority shareholders to nominate individuals for Directorships.
- Have qualifications that match criteria set forth by Public Limited Companies Act, Company's Articles of Association, and Good corporate governance.
- Consider suitability of candidates based on their skills, experiences, knowledge, and expertise in various kinds of profession to be the most useful to the Company by not considering in sex, race, or any differences.
- Consider board diversification which currently may be lacking by using a Skill Matrix to assess suitability related to the company's operations.
- Consider in any Conflicts of Interest.

In this meeting, The proposed candidates were scrutinized by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors, and their qualifications are suitable for company's business. The company had invited shareholders to propose the name of candidates to be elected as directors in advance. After end of proposal period, there was no shareholder to propose name of candidates to be elected as directors.
